Watershed's Young Leaders volunteer programme supported sixteen young people aged 16yrs to 25yrs to plan and deliver a programme of workshops for other local young people during Easter break (April 2010).

Working with media industry professionals and Watershed staff, the volunteers worked together over four months to plan, schedule and deliver a comprehensive programme of creative workshops and events for young people aged 8yrs to 25yrs.

The group used facebook as a way to keep in touch with the programme managers at Watershed and with each other. They used the facility as a planning aide, a space in which to communicate and collaborate, and as an archive for their own work. The programme managers found the facility to be a useful, appropriate and effective tool to sustain the volunteer's engagement with both the programme and the organisation.

“...it's been brilliant, I've already learned a lot and it's been great hearing other people's ideas and seeing them slowly taking shape.

I expected it to be interesting, but it's been much more inspiring than I could have hoped for. I signed up for it purely because it was at Watershed and I've always loved visiting the cinema, but I had no idea it would provide us with so much opportunity for ideas and creativity.
