The Eternal Memory

“A magnificent love-story and the complex connection of individual memories with collective memories, giving us a clear portrait of a Latin American country! A powerful and deep moving film!”

Lorena Pino Montilla - Trowbridge Town Hall & FilmBath Festival

The Yak In The Classroom

“We don't see many (any?) films from Bhutan but this one was a charmer with cinematography worthy of an Oscar!”

Jed Falby, Budleigh Film Society

What has been your favourite studio release of the year?

5. Women Talking
 4. Killers of the Flower Moon
 3. Mission: Impossible – Dead Reckoning Part One
 2. Oppenheimer

...and No. 1 is...

Barbie

“This film made going to the cinema an event again, with packed audiences, most of which dressed in their best pink attire and also a fantastic viewing experience. Kudos to Greta Gerwig.”

Rachel Stevens, City Eye/Southampton Film Week

Honourable mentions

Big budget world cinema

“This has been a great year for world cinema especially with the likes of Jawan, Sisu and Three Musketeers: D’Artagan offering genre entertainment with an art house twist.”

Timon Singh, Forbidden Worlds Film Festival
